8 Things You Need to Know this Week

Don't Forget to Vote Tuesday!

Call for Action Take Action!

Pay Your Dues

1. Help Save the Dream of Homeownership

Don't let the tax reform become a tax increase for homeowners. Tell your members of congress to oppose any tax reform that would weaken the tax incentives for owning a home. Click here to learn more about the tax bill.

As important as this issue is, amazingly only 29.6% percent of our members have responded to the Call for Action. We can and must do better!

2. Thank You to All RPAC Donors!

Thank you to all of our members that contributed to the REALTOR® Political Action Committee (RPAC) in 2017! Because of all of you, we reached our goal of $31,270! This week, you should see your GSAR dues bill arrive, and you will see the RPAC line on that invoice. Please consider including that contribution with your dues, it is so very important for our industry. Click here to pay and donate!

3. GSAR Well Represented at "Fair Housing Turns 50" Conference

The following GSAR members attended the "Fair Housing Turns 50" conference yesterday at the Marriott Syracuse Downtown. The keynote address was "School Segregation and Education Equality", presented by NY Times reporter Nikole Hannah-Jones. In attendance were: Denise Bugenhagen, Shauna Teelin, Susan Proch, Kim Frarey, Roxanne Plummer, Terri Micho, and Samantha Covey.

4. Is Your Website DMCA Compliant?

The Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) is a federal copyright law that enhances the penalties for copyright infringement occurring on the Internet. The law provides exemptions or "safe harbors" from copyright infringement liability for online service providers (OSP) that satisfy certain criteria. Courts construe the definition of "online service provider" broadly, which would likely include MLSs as well as participants and subscribers hosting an IDX display.
